What is a library locker & how does it work?

Multiple locker door styles and sizes allow the remoteLocker to be customized for any library location or community space. Bibliotheca's automated library lockers will provide libraries with the tools to bridge service gaps while allowing users to pick up or drop off their reserved materials and items when it best suits their schedule.

Do some libraries have pickup lockers?

Some libraries offer pickup lockers as an added convenience for customers. These lockers are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, allowing you to pick up holds when it's convenient for you. The availability of pickup lockers can be checked at our library locations.

Do libraries need a smart locker?

With businesses making themselves pick-up destinations by adopting click-and-collect delivery, libraries can now take a significant step towards placing them on the map as a destination accessible to all patrons. By installing a smart locker, libraries can elevate the pick-up experience.

Where can Library Smart lockers be installed?

Our library smart lockers have been installed in library vestibules, grocery stores, community centers, parking lots, and even fire stations. Graphic wraps allow libraries to customize a locker to increase awareness and promote their brand, while the intuitive software makes borrowing items, returning items, and managing accounts simple for patrons.

Why do libraries use remote lockers?

Many libraries use library pick up lockers, such as Bibliotheca's remoteLocker, to help ensure easy access to reserved titles, items and materials, bridge service gaps and deliver easy access and accessibility to patrons.
